MONDAY, JUNE 5. 1738.

NUM 911

Saturday last arrived the Mail due from Holland, and Yesterday one from France.

Petersburgh, May 10. O. S.

Turks are assembling in great Numbers on this Side the Dniester, and fortifying themselves there, with a Design, as 'tis believed, to dispute the Passage of our Troops over that River. At the same time the Emperor's Minister, the Count d'Osselin, received an Express from his Court, with News that the last Dispatches which arrived from Constantinople, give Hopes of a speedy Peace with the Ottoman Porte. Her Czarish Majesty has lately sent an Order to the College of War, directing them for the future to buy no more Prussian Cloth on any Account whatsoever for the cloathing of her Army.

Vienna, May 17. O. S. Two Days ago the Court received an Express from the General Count de Neuperg in Transylvania, with News that the Turks had made two Attacks upon Meadia, a Post about 6 Leagues from Orsova, between Wallachia and the Bannat of Temeswaer, but were repulsed in each Attack; and the News was confirm'd by a second Express, which arrived Yesterday. By both Expresses we have the following Particulars.

In a few Days after the Turks had taken Old Orsova, the Seraskier of Widdin sent to acquaint the Baron de Cornberg, who commands in New Orsova, That since he could not but perceive by very late Events, that Heaven declared in favour of the Ottoman Arms, he ought not to be so obstinate in maintaining his Post, and that if he would surrender it, he should have an honourable Capitulation. The Commandant thinking this a very odd Summons, return'd a proper Answer, and made Preparation to give his Enemies a warm Reception. But this Menace against Orsova was purely to cover their Design upon Meadia, as was plainly perceiv'd on the 4th of May in the Morning, by the Route which was taken by one of their Detachments, consisting of at least 6000 Men. When the Turks came next Day near to that Post, they attack'd it very smartly, by a furious Fire from their Small Arms. The Imperial Detachment that was posted at Meadia, and which amounted at most but to 600 Men, repulsed the Turks, and obliged them to retire with Loss. In the Afternoon they made a new Attempt, but it succeeded no better than the former, for they were obliged a second Time to abandon their Enterprize; and next Day, viz. the 6th, the Officer who commands in Meadia, being informed that the Turks halted but a little way off, he made a Sally upon them, and attacked them with such Advantage, that he kill'd several, and return'd to his Post with 5 Prisoners, who say, that in both Attacks the Turks lost near 800 Men. We had on this Occasion but 28 Men kill'd and 50 wounded, among whom are several Officers. The Enemy still continues incamped in the Neighbourhood of New Orsova and Meadia; but the Count de Neuperg, who is to be join'd at Temeswaer by a great Reinforcement, will march forthwith to cover those Posts.

Notwithstanding these Hostilities we are assur'd (says the Utrecht Gazetteer) that a Peace between the Emperor and the Porte is not far off, and that there's a very great Probability of Russia's being included in it. What principally gives Rise to this Opinion is the Arrival of a Person sent from the Marquis de Villeneuve, the French Ambassador at the Porte, with certain Advices so much to the Satisfaction of the Emperor, that he made a very handsome Present to the Messenger that brought them, who, 'tis said, is the Marquis de Villeneuve's Kinman. Mean Time nothing is neglected for opening the Campaign with Vigour; and To-morrow the Great Duke of Tuscany and the Count de Palfi are to set out for Belgrade, whither the Velt-Marshal Philippi went two Days ago. Mr. Robinson the British Minister is returned hither from London. 'Tis said the Court has received an Express from the Governor-General of the Milanese, with Advice that the King of Sardinia has caused his Troops to take Possession of a Territory in the Tortonese, which was in Dispute between the Emperor and his Sardinian Majesty; and that the former so resents it, that he has forbid the Count de Canals, the Sardinian Envoy Extraordinary, to come to Court.

Berlin, May 28, N. S. On the 21st the Court removed from Potsdam to their Residence here. The next Day the five Regiments which come hither every Year, marched into Town; and on the 24th his Prussian Majesty took a general Review of them, and of the other five Regiments which compose the Garrison of this Place. A few Days before his Prussian Majesty left Potsdam, he sent for M. Andrieux, one of his Council, who by Birth is a Swiss; and M. Andrieux is since set out for Switzerland, being charged it is said with a Commission to engage some of the Swiss Cantons to let his Prussian Majesty have six of their Battalions, upon the same Terms as the French have the Swiss Troops which are in their Service.

It contains not only a good Collection of the most elegant among the Old Songs, but also above One Hundred and Fifty New ones, wrote by Celebrated Hands. And besides the particular Care taken in the Choice of their Compositions, the Tunes are likewise mentioned; which must be allowed a great Addition to the Work, as it enables the Reader to sing, what otherwise might possibly be passed over only as a Copy of Verses.

ANTI-SYPHILICON.
 THE only short and most infallible

Cure in the Universe for the VENEREAL DISEASE, from the slightest Infection to the most extreme and deplorable Degree of it, even when the Blood and Juices are thoroughly contaminated with its malignant Virus, and the very Bones are affected with it.

Fresh Infections; call'd CLAPS, with all their attendant Symptoms, tho' ever so severe, are entirely carried off by it in a few Days, and so as effectually to prevent the Blood and Juices from being tainted with any remaining Relicks on one Hand, or a venereal Gleet or Weakness to happen on the other.

And the most inveterate Degree of the French Illness, attended with Nocturnal Pains, universal Breakings out, and all the other most exasperated Symptoms, are soon overcome by it, and effectually and much more safely cured than by Salivation, Inungation, or any other Method whatever, and in so easy and pleasant a Manner, without impairing Strength, or occasioning any Inconvenience, as loudly to bespeak it the only apposite Remedy or true Venereal Antidote in the World; and this some Thousands have to their great Joy experienced.

It is pleasant to take, occasions no Sickness or Disorder, nor requires Confinement; out may be taken, and the Cure be accomplish'd, without the Knowledge of the nearest Friend.

Those who suspect they have received an Injury, may, by only a Dose or two of it, be perfectly freed from all Apprehensions; for it suffers no lurking Venom to lie hid in the Body, but wholly extirpates it Root and Branch, in a gentle, easy, and most effectual Manner.

All such likewise as doubt they have some remaining Relicks of former Injuries, may by a few Doses of it intirely free themselves from all Suspicion of that Kind; for it admits of no Foulness, Corruption, or Putrefaction whatever, to remain in the Fluids, or to adhere to the Solids; and on that Account, in all scorbutick, scrophulous, and even leproous Eruptions or Foulnesses of the Skin, Glandulous Swellings and Impurities of the Juices, it does more by one Dose, than any other Medicine yet known can by ten.

The Price of this most Noble ANTI-SYPHILICON is but Six Shillings a Pot, which, considering its extraordinary Efficacy, one Pot only being sufficient in most Cases to accomplish the Cure, is not a tenth Part of its Value; and is appointed by the Author to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toyshop, at the Rose and Crown against St. Clement's Church-Yard in the Strand, ready sealed up with a Book of Instructions, by the Perusal of which, all Persons who were ever affected with any Degree of the Venereal Disease, may perfectly understand their own Condition, and certainly know when, and when not, the Venereal Poison is intirely rooted out of their Bodies.

Note, Ask only for a Six Shilling Pot for the Scurvy.
